2015 “This exciting, refreshing, superbly balanced wine has crisp green apple aromas and lively, almost electric lemon, lime and cucumber flavors. It’s a great choice for lunch or with an appetizer course, since it’s sure to get the conversation—as well as the appetite—going.”

“This lush, almost waxy chenin has a refreshing peatendrill greenness that acts as an appetizing counterpoint to its weighty texture. A hint of lavender spice gives it surprising nuance relative to its accessible price.”

“V” Rosé 2016 Paso Robles, CA

This Rosé was made as part of the Red Dirt Red wine family, by taking some of the juice at the destemmer before the grapes were pumped into the red fermenter. However, a good portion of the wine was made by pressing the grapes directly in the press.

“Screw cap. Excellent quality rose. It is fragrant, full bodied, balanced, and long on the finish, tasting of cherry, plum, watermelon, herbs, and white pepper. Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre. [2017-2018].”

“V” Petite Sirah 2015 Clarksburg, CA

“A powerful, extremely fruity, young Petite Sirah that is full bodied, intensely flavored (spicy oak, blackberry jam, blueberry, cedar), and somewhat tannic on the finish. Can be aged further. Great value.”

2016 “There’s the slightest pink tint to the color of this bottling, which shows baked apple and poached pear aromas on the ripe but pleasant nose. The palate is also quite ripe, showing more cooked pome fruit and squeezed lime, with a decent texture.”

2015 "A touch of buttered popcorn is in the aroma. Rich toasty flavors give an assertive, attractive oaky personality to this medium-bodied wine made from Chenin Blanc, Roussanne and Viognier that was aged in older oak barrels. It has a broad smooth texture, a good layering of butter, spice and pear-tart flavors, and a lingering finish."

Red Dirt Red 2016 Paso Robles, CA

This is a unique blend which yields a combination of flavors that is only possible with a blend. The Syrah is very juicy with ripe cherry and supple with a silky texture; the Mourvedre is responsible for the earthy notes and then the wine finishes with spicy Grenache which seems to express black and/or white pepper notes and followed by the super dark and dense Petite Sirah which adds depth, concentration and supple cherry flavors which brings the whole blend together.

The Scrapper Cabernet Franc 2015 El Dorado, CA

"This is a seriously delicious wine that's packed tightly with fruit, floral and spice flavors and has a firm but velvety texture that makes it a pleasure to sip. It has a deep dark ruby color, expressive aromas, generous black-cherry and dark chocolate flavors and a lingering finish. Best after 2022."

2015 "Chocolate, elderberry, roast beef and purple flower notes emerge on the complex nose of this bottling. Richer blackberry and black currant flavors show on the palate, with touches of soy, char and sugar plum, proving quite savory all around."

2016 "A rounded red berry aroma meets wet soil and the slightest hint of dried garden herbs on the nose of this bottling. The palate is evenly weighted, carrying flavors of dark berry, oregano and pencil shavings."

2014 "This wine packs a punch and overdelivers quality for the price. This is a crowd-pleaser in its lush, soft and fruity combination of grilled meat, bacon and smoky tannin. Those big bold elements are complemented by plenty of black-cherry jam."

2015 "Thick grippy tannins surround a core of mountain sage and dried herb in this 100% varietal wine. Tart underlying acidity brightens a triumvirate of cherry, cassis and red currant, with the promise of rocky minerality lingering on the finish."
