

Piazza del Castello

Tuscany — Italy

Piazza del Castello is meant to be shared with family and friends, and created to complement an Italian-style meal.

Situated in the picturesque hills of Tuscany is the medieval town of Radda where an 11th century castle still stands today.

Just beneath the tower is a quaint square called Piazza del Castello. The grapes for this SUPER TUSCAN & ROSATO grow in the sun-drenched hillside vineyards near this alluring place. A rich Italian wine, Piazza del Castello is meant to be shared with family and friends, and created to complement an Italian-style meal.

Piazza del Castello Rosso Toscana IGT (Super Tuscan) 2015

This 'super-Tuscan' blend of 60% Sangiovese, 30% Cab Sauv and 10% Merlot displays an intense red color with a fragrant bouquet of floral and violet notes. The beautiful aromas convey sensations of fullness and complexity with a note of ripe berries and cherries that gives way to chocolate and nuances of dark earthy tones. It is harmoniously rich in structure but bold in the finish.

Piazza del Castello Rosato Toscana IGT 2016

"Pale pink color. Delicately flavored, medium bodied, and dry, this is a very good rose. It tastes of plum, cherry, and lime. Fine value. 100% Sangiovese. [2017-2018]."
