Actively committed for many years to organic and biodynamic growing, our estate is involved in protecting our ecosystem and intends to respect the balance between terroir, plants and people. Cover crop growing between vines is controlled. Soil compaction is minimized. The soil is fed only with home-produced high-quality organic compost (600 tons), without chemicals and we choose to use an organic fertilizer to enrich the soil biology. Ecocert certified organic in 2015 and working on Demeter certification.
