

The Anheuser's family tree dates back to the year 1627 when an Anheuser lived in Kreuznach and was known as an owner of vineyards. Rudolf Anheuser was the first grower in the Nahe region to start the cultivation of vineyards planted exclusively with Riesling. Rudolf's son Paul continued the family tradition, and today Rudolf and Paul (no coincidence) are the 14th generation to own and manage the estate.

Legacy & Future Vintages

Blanc de Noir Pinot Noir Qualitätswein 2020

The wine presents a good, firm structure with expressive ripe and appealing flavors such as cherry, strawberry, and other Pinot-like complexities, yet finishes dry.

Schlossböckelheimer Königsfels Riesling Kabinett 2020 plush style, with plenty of white fruit flavors and a good backbone of acidity. Ripe melon and spice fill the juicy finish.
