

Dr Karl Heyden founded the estate in 1999 with his wife, Anita and their two sons, Frank and Harry. This young talented generation is already crafting great wines from these highly rated vineyards. Sadly, Dr Karl Heyden died in 2005. Traditional and meticulously detailed cultivation of the vines with strict pruning, careful soil & foliage management, low yields and selective hand-picking, are coupled with modern technology in the cellars.

Silvaner trocken alte Reben 2018/19

"Whiffs of violet petal and lychee lend exotic perfume to this dry but very fruity Silvaner. It's a juicy, mouthwatering white marked by tropical melon and peach flavors and finishing elegantly on a rim of tea tannins. An unusual bang-for-your-buck introduction to an underappreciated yet multifaceted grape variety. Best enjoyed young."

Oppenheimer Sacktrager Riesling Spätlese 2018

"Barely there whiffs of smoke and spice accent apricot on the nose of this medium-sweet Riesling. Cutting lemon and tangerine offset loads of mouthwatering white peach nectar on the palate. An elegant but easy-drinking Spätlese, it's an ideal summer quaffer or aperitif. Best enjoyed young."

Oppenheimer Estate Pinot Noir 2019

"A hint of incense lends sex appeal to pristine blackberry and black cherry flavors in this full-bodied but spry red. Freshly concentrated and invigorating in fruit profile, it's a crisp, easy-drinking Pinot that's especially appealing in youth."
