

Tortoise Creek was created by Mel and Janie Master, who have lived most of their lives in the wine business. The concept is to work with small farmers in California who focus on sustainable farming. Tortoise Creek is handcrafted, small-batch wines selected and blended from growers who understand this philosophy. In 2008, Mel and Janie Master joined forces with the Sager family who own the national importing company, Winesellers, Ltd.

Tortoise Creek Zinfandel 2019

A portion of proceeds is donated to the Chelonian Research Foundation (CRF) to benefit the conservation and increased understanding.

"Earthy, flinty aromas lead to generous dried plum and black-raisin flavors in this full-bodied but soft-textured wine."
