

GEORGES
DUBOEUF

DOMAINE DES QUATRE VENTS FLEURIE 2023

For more than four centuries, the Duboeuf family has been producing wine. Now, Georges Duboeuf is a name that needs no introduction, as he is famous for turning Beaujolais Nouveau into an international phenomenon. He cared a great deal about Beaujolais, and his dedication still resonates today - elevating both the Beaujolais region and Gamay grape to near-cult status. Beaujolais Nouveau and the "Flower Label" Villages wines, wines whose labels were hand-drawn by Georges himself, are part of Les Vins Georges Duboeuf. These wines represent enjoying the simple pleasures of life such as gathering with friends and family.

REGION

Fleurie AOP

Philippe Baron is the current owner of the domain. This estate is magnificently positioned to capture the best of the Beaujolais sunlight (south-east exposure). Cyril Coperet, a talented and careful winemaker, is in charge of vines, harvest and winemaking.

VINEYARD

Viticulture: Granite soil. The vines are cultivated in order to reduce carbon impact: few interventions of the tractor, mostly human hand. The average yield is 50 hl/hectare.

Vinification: Semi-carbonic maceration and "grillage" (immersed cap).

TASTING NOTES

With a deep red color, this Fleurie offers up the characteristic aroma of red berries. Thanks to the delicate but identifiable tannins, this wine had a good structure in the mouth. This is a wine with great aromatic complexity.
