

GEORGES DUBOEUF

JEAN-ERNEST DESCOMBES MORGON

For more than four centuries, the Duboeuf family has been producing wine. Now, Georges Duboeuf is a name that needs no introduction, as he is famous for turning Beaujolais Nouveau into an international phenomenon. He loved the Beaujolais region and wines, and his dedication still resonates today - elevating both the Beaujolais region and Gamay grape to near-cult status. The family passion for fine wine lives today in Duboeuf's top-level bottlings of single domaines, representing the best and most iconic wines of the Beaujolais and Maconnais regions.

DOMAINE

Dating back to the late 17th and early 18th centuries, Domaine Jean-Ernest Descombes is one of Morgon's most historic estates and is owned by the Descombes-Savoie family. Jean-Ernest Descombes was one of Beaujolais' most respected winegrowers, renowned for his charismatic personality, exceptional winemaking, and dedication to promoting the Morgon cru. His vineyards, many over 50 years old, were planted in some of the appellation's finest terroirs, earning the estate widespread acclaim. Following his passing in 1993, his daughter Nicole continued his legacy with the same passion and commitment to quality. The domaine has partnered with Georges Duboeuf for more than 60 years.

VINEYARD

Viticulture: The 30-acre (12-hectare) vineyard sits at an elevation of 1,150 feet (350 meters) and is planted on pink granite arenite soils.

Winemaking: Produced using traditional Beaujolais Winemaking, the wine ferments at 82-86°F (28-30°C) and undergoes a 10-12 day maceration, then aged in concrete tanks.
