

GEORGES DUBOEUF

DOMAINE DES CAPITANS JULIÉNAS

For more than four centuries, the Duboeuf family has been producing wine. Now, Georges Duboeuf is a name that needs no introduction, as he is famous for turning Beaujolais Nouveau into an international phenomenon. He loved the Beaujolais region and wines, and his dedication still resonates today - elevating both the Beaujolais region and Gamay grape to near-cult status. The family passion for fine wine lives today in Duboeuf's top-level bottlings of single domaines, representing the best and most iconic wines of the Beaujolais and Maconnais regions.

DOMAINE

The estate is situated in the heart of the Julié纳斯 appellation in the historic hamlet of Les Capitans. Dating back to the 18th century, Château des Capitans has been owned by the Duboeuf family since 2003. In the 1940s, the château belonged to Victor Peyret, a prominent figure in Beaujolais whose legacy lives on through the annual Victor Peyret Prize, awarded to individuals who have helped promote the region.

VINEYARD

Viticulture: The 30 acre estate is planted on deep siliceous volcanic soils and sits at an elevation of 1,050 feet (320 meters). Its south-southeast exposure maximizes sunlight throughout the growing season, allowing the grapes to reach ideal maturity while expressing the distinctive character of the Julié纳斯 terroir.

Winemaking: The grapes are partially destemmed before fermentation in temperature-controlled stainless-steel tanks at 68-86°F (20-30°C). The wine undergoes an 8-12 day maceration followed and aged primarily in stainless steel, with 5-7% matured in oak casks.
