

GEORGES
DUBOEUF

DOMAINE DES ROSIERS MOULIN-A-VENT

For more than four centuries, the Duboeuf family has been producing wine. Now, Georges Duboeuf is a name that needs no introduction, as he is famous for turning Beaujolais Nouveau into an international phenomenon. He loved the Beaujolais region and wines, and his dedication still resonates today - elevating both the Beaujolais region and Gamay grape to near-cult status. The family passion for fine wine lives today in Duboeuf's top-level bottlings of single domaines, representing the best and most iconic wines of the Beaujolais and Maconnais regions.

DOMAINE

The estate Founded in 1936, when Moulin-à-Vent was granted AOC status, and currently owned by the Balvay Family. Winemaker Gérard Charvet comes from a family that has lived in Chénas for over a century, where generations of experience have shaped his meticulous approach to viticulture and winemaking. He has managed the estate since succeeding his father in 1983 and continues to produce wines with precision and consistency from a modern, well-equipped winery. Georges Duboeuf has partnered with the domaine for more than 50 years and has purchased its entire production since 1976.

NOTES

granite soils. The vineyards are farmed sustainably and are certified High Environmental Value (HVE), reflecting the estate's commitment to environmental stewardship. Vineyard practices focus on preserving biodiversity, implementing responsible phytosanitary strategies, optimizing fertilization management, and protecting water resources.

Winemaking: The grapes are partially destemmed and fermented in temperature-controlled stainless steel vats with a 10-14 day maceration. The wine is then aged primarily in stainless steel, with 10% matured in oak vats.

This wine is characterized by intense dark berry aromas (blackcurrants, blackberries) with floral scents such as peonies, and a hint of spice. Its tannins have great finesse, giving the wine power and elegance, maintaining a long finish.

Alcohol: 13.5%
